RE: Norbert Maday

Norb has been confined to his quarters until we have an opportunity to meet with him and his lawyer concerning the protocol. He has asked through [REDACTED] to go to his doctor this afternoon because his back is bothering him. I gave him permission. I also gave permission for all the fellows to attend the Chrism Mass on Tuesday at the Cathedral.

I spoke to Tom Paprocki about what would happen if Norb continued to be non-cooperative in terms of living situation. Tom suggested two steps: one, the Cardinal would approach Norb on the question of doing it out of obedience. This of course has limited application to details of his living. If Norb does not cooperate with that, then the following step is in order. Two, it might involve citing Canon 1722 in which the Cardinal can impose restrictions even as far as living conditions if it has to do with the good of the Church or the common good. We would try to take this in a reasonable direction when we meet with Norb and his lawyers.

The meeting is set up for 4/15/92 at 10:30 AM in Paprocki's office.
